Werley of Malone, New York; Angel Torro of Seminole, Florida; John U. Miller of Albany, New York; Matthew Brown of Shaker Heights, Ohio; and June Christine Goudey of Woodland Hills, California.

Donato and Aris N. De Jesús, and “Youth Rites of Passage and Rituals of Transition” by Maren Tirabassi.

Liturgies such as “A Liturgy and Prayers for Youth and Adults Seeking Baptism” and “Additional Prayers for those Preparing for Baptism” are rooted in the historic rites of the catechumenate, the time of baptismal preparation. Many of our ecumenical partners have invited us to consider again the importance of this time. We are especially grateful to the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America and their resource Renewing Worship: Holy Baptism and Related Rites (Minneapolis: Augsburg Press, 2002), and to the United Methodist, Daniel T. Benedict Jr., and his work Come to the Waters: Baptism and Our Ministry of Welcoming Seekers and Making Disciples (Nashville: Discipleship Resources, 1996).

The consulting and writing team for Prayers and Patterns included June Christine Goudey of Woodland Hills, California; Scott Haldeman of Chicago, Illinois; F. Russell Mitman of Collegeville, Pennsylvania; Maren Tirabassi of Portsmouth, New Hampshire; Fritz West of Fountain City, Wisconsin; and Marge Royle of Lincoln Park, New Jersey.

Sidney D. Fowler, minister for worship, liturgy, and spiritual formation, Local Church Ministries, served as coordinator and editor of Prayers and Patterns. Brenda Lawrence, Charlotte Lillquist, Kimberlee Nagy-Bublik, and Damarís Vélez provided administrative support.
