

The Language of God Study Questions

"The Language of God," the United Church of Christ's spring 2010 viral internet message, is a fast-paced, 90-second experience that invites exploration of the many ways that God's voice is being heard and made known in the world.

Watch this internet message with your congregation, small group, friends or family and then consider the following questions for discussion:

What images from "The Language of God" most vividly caught your attention? Why do you think they were memorable? Were any images confusing, troublesome or especially meaningful to you? Why?

How do you perceive or experience God speaking in the world?

What is distinctive about the United Church of Christ's emphasis on a Stillspeaking God? What does the UCC's phrase "God is still speaking" mean to you?

Watch "The Language of God" again. Has this conversation altered the way you experience this video?

God is still speaking,
